NOTICE

REGARDING STRAY CANDIDATE PERMISSION AND SCRIBE ARRANGEMENTS

Following the conclusion of the Examination Form Fill-up for the Term End Examinations (TEE) for December 2025 and June 2026 (applicable to 3rd-semester PG and 2nd-semester UG programmes), all examinees are advised to download their hall tickets. Learners can access and download their Hall Ticket by logging in to their official learner portal using the credentials provided by the university.

Further, all concerned learners are advised to apply for appearing at alternative examination centres as stray candidate and scribe requirements from 24/08/2026 to 27/08/2026.

1. Application for Stray Candidate: Learners who wish to change their allotted Examination Centre and appear as a Stray Candidate at any other recognized Examination Centre of the University must submit a formal application. Permission will be granted solely at the discretion of the University based on the merit of the case. Learners must provide a valid reason (e.g., medical emergency, official transfer, or unavoidable circumstances) supported by relevant documentary evidence.

2. Provision of Scribe arrangement for the Differently Abled Learners (Scribe): Differently abled learners requiring the assistance of a Scribe for the upcoming examinations must apply within the stipulated timeline. Learners for both categories are required to send their applications along with scanned copies of all supporting documents via email to: exam@osou.ac.in on or before 5pm 27/08/2026.

Note: Applications received after the deadline or without proper documentation will not be entertained. Learners are advised to ensure that their requests are sent promptly to avoid any last-minute inconvenience.
